

RIVER ROUGE PUBLIC LIBRARY
DISPLAY CASE POLICY

Display space is available in the library's display case for educational, artistic, and cultural materials that promote interest in the use of books, library materials, and information, or that share information about local art and cultural groups. Preference will be given to exhibits that are timely and of general interest. Displays that are solely commercial in focus are not appropriate.

Displays will generally be changed monthly. Groups of individuals desiring to use the exhibit case should submit a request to the library director. The library director may reject any exhibit or display that does not fit with the mission of the library or that is not neat and presented attractively. Labels for exhibit items must be neat and legible.

The library will take reasonable care to ensure the safety and security of items displayed, however the library has no insurance to cover exhibit items and assumes no responsibility in the event of loss, theft, or damage. Items displayed may not include price tags or other information regarding the purchase of items. Display of items in the library does not indicate endorsement of the issues, events, or services promoted by those materials.
